'Twas a spell before Christmas and Santa did find that he and the elves were running behind.

*He thought to himself,
"What can I do?"*

Then he wrote for some help from Tyler, Cameron, and Ella too!!

When they arrived
there was much to do.

Santa exclaimed,
“I’m really glad to see you!”

The first task at hand
was to check his list twice,
to see if they had been naughty or nice.

Santa and his elves
make all the toys,
and deliver them to homes
of good girls and boys.

This year Santa
was running behind,
he needed their help
and they didn't mind.

On December 24th Santa
travels the world,
he told them all the places
his magic has swirled.

Santa taught them a lesson
about flying deer,
and told them some stories about his travels each year.

There is a magic to Christmas only Santa possesses, He shared it with them along with some lessons.

To be really good once
a year just won't do.
You must have a heart filled with love and always be true.

Santa said,
“The magic of Christmas
lies in your heart,
if you keep it in there we’ll never part.”

They helped Santa
just like they were told.
The feeling they got
was one to behold!

After all their hard work
it was time for a treat.

So with milk and warm cookies
they sat down to eat.

*“Pinkies up,” Santa said,
as they took

*They knew any moment
he could be gone
in a blink.*

When the lessons were over and things were all set, Santa said that the fun
wasn't over just yet.

He said, "Come hither,
look at this snow!
Quick! Make some snow balls let's all throw!"

The children all loved Santa but knew it was time for him to leave.

They also knew in their hearts that they would always Believe!

The End
